

Declaration

Our company's Quality Management System is consistent with the requirements of ISO 9001: 2008, we have developed, implemented and audited to the 9001 standard, ensuring the continuous and controlled quality of our production.

Portaline produces the wooden frames and doors using materials, for the manufacturing, from the domestic and European Market based on a list of approved suppliers.

Recently Portaline implemented and audited our environmental management system according to ISO 14001:2004 ensuring our compliance to environmental laws and regulations.